THIS 2021

THIS has always been something different. For the past four years (2017–2020), THIS (Twenty Four Hours in the Spirit) was a chance for a group of women in and around Warren County (and beyond) to stop their regular routine for a concentrated chance to focus on God's word, to refresh, and to enjoy fellowship with other women. After reviewing your survey results, and in an effort to reach more women across the country, THIS 2021 will once again be online in a virtual format.

When: Starts September 20th at 11:00am CST

on 'Tasting the Fullness of Joy'

After a year of slowing down and being still, many of us have experienced the business of what life used to be. Ushering kids and ourselves around to ball games, practices, music events, church camps, all the vacations and trips we weren't able to take, and more, all packed into one summer. That can be overwhelming! But there is also an abundance of joy!
